This award acknowledges proficiency in PRINT images. Members enter prints into our monthly evaluation night. Only their highest print score for each month is added together for this award to make up the highest aggregate. First through third place are presented.

Max Jamieson was a valued member who served as a print chair, and offered his expertise and his home for many a competition selection meetings. Sadly, we lost a great friend in him in 2013. He was a skilled Film photographer who excelled in Black & White images, was a master in the darkroom and in the craft of print making. His passion and dedication in sharing the art of photography, in its rawest form, was received with gratitude and a great source of pride in having him as a member of our LCC family. We dedicate this award in his honour.

5. Judy Daniels' Award of Excellence – Inside & Outside Combined Competition

Judy Daniels was a vibrant member of the Langley Camera Club for ten years. In addition to being an active member of the Langley Camera Club, she also was a member of the Lions Gate Camera Club and Canadian Association for Photographic Art. Judy was recognized for her photographic excellence with countless awards and had her work published in magazines such as Canadian Camera Magazine, Langley Visitor's Guide, Visitors' Choice Magazine, Photographer's Forum Magazine and "Best of Photography. Judy exhibited in juried exhibitions and received awards for her work and she also sold her pictures to collectors.

Judy gave back to our community as much as she received. As well as volunteering for many positions within her clubs, she also served as a certified judge. Her comments were knowledgeable, encouraging and instructional and she also mentored other photographers in the art of judging.

Judy is remembered for her wit and sense of humour; it is her legacy of high calibre photography and competitive spirit that the LCC recognizes and honours the recipient of the Judy Daniels Award.

It is a Point Earned award based on an LCC member's aggregate scores for combined outside competitions and from our club's Evaluation night. Each member's Aggregate scores for Evaluation Night and Outside Competitions will be added together at the end of June. Those members with the top 10 combined scores will be awarded the Judy Daniels' Award of Excellence.

The top ten recipients for 2014-2015 are:

10. Liza Chau - 330

8. Chris Sheffield Service Award

The Chris Sheffield Service Award is presented to a member on the Executive who embodies the spirit of the LCC Objective.

“The Langley Camera Club (LCC) objective is to promote and advance photography as an art form, to relax and enjoy photography with friendly associates, to be active in our hobby and promote friendly competition, to provide instruction and helpful advice, to encourage members to stay active, to produce new work, to improve upon existing and ever changing new techniques and to exhibit photographic work of club members – both in club and outside the club.” (LCC Handbook)

In June, each member of the executive will receive a ballot to vote for their 1st and 2nd choice.

The following criteria should be considered for the nominations:

Leadership

- Is the candidate a great role model as a member and/or as a photographer?
- Has the candidate shown superior leadership qualities by inspiring others?

Participation

- Participation for the club behind the scenes
- Participation at the club.

The ballots are then tabulated by the a designated Awards Committee member (this year, Bill Kellett). The winner will receive the Chris Sheffield Service Award Trophy and Certificate for outstanding service, dedication & lasting contribution for the betterment and enjoyment of the Langley Camera Club

The 2015 Chris Sheffield Service Award is presented to Joy Gerow
