

Travel for Photography

Join photographer Karen Massier as she speaks about her experiences with travel photography. She has traveled with Art Wolfe, Franz Lanting, Marsel Van Oosten, Kevin Raber, and Thomas Mangelson and will speak to you what it is like to travel with professional photography tours versus regular tours and independent travel. Karen has just returned from photographing The Islamic Republic of Iran with wildlife photographer of the year Marsel Van Oosten, and will be presenting some of her captured images. Enjoy images from famous Mosques, the coloured mountains and one of the hottest places on earth the Lut Desert. She will also present on other areas of the world.

Karen Massier Biography

Karen Massier calls Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada her home and is an avid lover of the outdoors and spends much of her time in many corners of the world chasing light for the special images she creates. Over the past 40 years Karen has developed her own style in capturing unique images of the faces of culture. Her favorite images are the unexpected ones that capture the uniqueness of the world around us. Karen's award winning work can be found in many places including books, magazines, calendars and promotional materials.

You can find info on her website here: <https://www.karenmassier.com/index>